What to Look for When Considering Your Scholars Well Being

Intro to Schoology (Guidance on Preparing Conditions for Learning)
Our Agenda

- August School Calendar
- Campus Contact Information
- Upcoming Meetings
Our Goal This Year

100% of families will have a positive, consistent, and engaging family and scholar experience
We want you to feel satisfied!

Feel satisfied with communication from administrators
Feel welcome on campus
Feel respected by leadership
Satisfied with your child’s education
Feel a consistent experience among Primary, Middle, and High

Satisfied that Uplift Summit Preparatory is the best choice for your family!
How will we get there?

- Family 1-on-1 meetings
- Weekly K-12 newsletter
- Virtual town halls
- Regular surveys for feedback
- Social media presence
- Leaders meeting weekly to ensure consistent expectations and experience
How to stay connected

Week 1: Aug 10th – Aug 14th

Scholars will have three interactions with their advisory teacher during this week.

01. Advisory #1 Secondary
   Advisory lesson about Internet Safety. This will be either synchronous or asynchronous.

02. Advisory #2 Secondary
   Advisory lesson about Cyber Ethics and Etiquette. This will be either synchronous or asynchronous.

03. 1-on-1 Meeting
   A 1-on-1 meeting with each scholar and their family. This can be done virtual or at campus by parent request.

   More on that...
   Meetings will be:
   - 30 minutes each
   - Get to know their advisory teacher
   - Get to know the scholar/family
   - Share virtual learning schedule
   - Share Schoology info/practice skills
   - Teacher will document convos and lingering questions
Scholars will follow the virtual schedule provided to them during the Week of August 10th with their advisory teacher.
