Part I: Comprehension/ Reflection/Response to Reading Questions
ABOUT THE BOOK

Neftali is a dreamer. He loves words, birds, forests, and the sky. But his father expects him to be practical, concentrate on his studies, and prepare for a career in business. Slowly Neftali learns to believe in himself, defy his father, and trust his own vision...a vision that makes him grow up to become one of the foremost poets of the twentieth century.

This imaginative exploration of the boyhood of Pablo Neruda takes readers on a rare journey of the heart and imagination, and brings hope and confidence to every child who has struggled against the odds and dreamed of a larger world.

BEFORE READING

Look up information about the country of Chile—its geography, climate, political history, and indigenous people, especially the Mapuche. Find out what is unique about the part of the country near the city of Temuco, where most of this story takes place.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Why does Father forbid Rodolfo to sing and Neftali to daydream? What is the effect on the entire family when Father is at home?

2. What is the significance of Neftali losing his mittens and his father’s hat in the first chapter?

3. Why does Rodolfo say about Father that he passes out invitations (to dinner) like overripe plums? What kind of man is José Reyes and why does he try to control his family so completely?

4. Compare Neftali’s father with his uncle Orlando. How are these men alike and how are they different?

5. Why is Neftali’s first trip to the forest so important to him? How does the trip affect his relationship with his father and his understanding of his own nature?

6. What is the significance of the chucao bird that Neftali hears in the forest? See a picture of this bird: www.arthurgrosset.com/sabirds/chucaotapaculo.html
7. Throughout the story, the author has inserted bits of poetry. Discuss the meaning of this question in the Forest chapter:

Which is sharper? The hatchet that cuts down dreams?
Or the scythe that clears a path for another?
Why is that phrase inserted in this chapter?

8. Who do you think is the mysterious child who leaves the toy sheep for Neftali? Why don’t they meet? Why is the sheep so important to Neftali when he doesn’t even know who gave it to him?

9. What does Neftalí learn about himself during the trip to the ocean and his summer there? Discuss the poetry inserted in the Lagoon chapter: “From what are the walls of a sanctuary built? And those of a prison?” Identify the sanctuaries you have found in your own life.

10. Why is the wounded swan so important to Neftalí and why is he reluctant to share it with his sister Laura? What does it mean to them when they do take care of the swan together?

11. Discuss the effect on the children of the swimming routine in the ocean. What feelings does Neftalí have toward his father at the end of the summer?

12. Why does Guillermo ask Neftalí to write to Blanca for him? How does she know who actually wrote the letters?

13. What is the importance of thirteen-year-old Neftalí’s job with his uncle? Why is Uncle Orlando’s newspaper office burned to the ground? What does Orlando mean when he says, “many whispers can make a very loud noise”?

14. Find out more about the Mapuche Indians in Chile. Discuss their importance in this story. Compare their history to other examples where indigenous people have been displaced, or their rights violated, by new settlers and the spread of industrial society.

15. Discuss the question: “Is fire born of words/ Or are words born of fire?” How does this question relate to the fire in the newspaper office and the later time when Father burns Neftalí’s notebooks?

16. Discuss Neftalí’s comment that his father was “so controlled by his own past that he dared not allow anyone he loved to control their own future.”

17. What prompts Neftalí to start to use the name Pablo Neruda? Discuss the question: “Does a metamorphosis begin/ from the outside in/ Or from the inside out?” What is Neftalí’s metamorphosis? What events of his childhood do you think are the most significant in shaping his character as a man?

18. How do the illustrations in this book further your understanding of the words and ideas presented here? What part does the artist play in your experience of the story?

Part III: Language Development Worksheets
End Punctuation

- A question mark follows a question.
  Do you want broccoli for supper?

- An exclamation point follows a word or sentence that shows strong feeling.
  Wow! That’s a great idea!

- A period follows a statement or a request.
  I’m not sure I heard you. Say that again.

Put a period, a question mark, or an exclamation point at the end of each of these sentences.

1. What’s good about broccoli ______
2. Broccoli is rich in vitamins ______
3. It tastes great ______
4. It has a pretty green color ______
5. The home gardener finds it easy to grow ______
6. Why doesn’t everyone eat broccoli ______
7. I like it with cheese sauce ______
8. Who likes it raw ______
9. I do ______ I do ______
10. Broccoli is definitely my favorite vegetable ______
Put a question mark, an exclamation point, or a period at the end of each sentence in this paragraph.

My favorite vegetable is carrots. They're so sweet. Do you know how my little brother eats carrots? He puts them in rolls and eats them like hot dogs. It's gross. What is your favorite vegetable? Do you like carrots, too?

Next Step Write three sentences about one of the vegetables listed below. One sentence should make a statement or request, another sentence should ask a question, and the third one should express strong feeling.

eggplant  cabbage  asparagus  squash  corn

1. Statement:

2. Question:

3. Exclamation:
Commases in Compound Sentences

Use a comma before the coordinating conjunction in a compound sentence. Some common conjunctions are and, but, and or.

I study plants in school, and I know a lot about them.

I’ve read about the Venus flytrap, but I’ve never seen one.

1. Most plants get their food from soil but some plants eat insects.
2. The Venus flytrap grows in swamps and it really is a trap for flies.
3. The flytrap looks harmless but it is a danger zone for bugs.
4. The leaves are like traps and they actually have teeth!
5. An insect lands on a flytrap’s leaf and the leaf snaps shut.
6. The insect is trapped and it can’t get away.
7. Venus flytraps are grown in plant stores or they grow wild.
8. You can feed your Venus flytrap bugs but you shouldn’t feed it meat.
9. Meat has salt in it and Venus flytraps don’t like salt.
2. Combine each pair of simple sentences to make a compound sentence. Put a comma before the coordinating conjunction. The first one has been done for you.

1. Computers are fast.
   They are fun to use.

   Computers are fast, and they are fun to use.

2. Robin wants to use her new computer.
   She does not know how to turn it on.

3. She needs help fast.
   She will cry.

   She says she will help.

Next Step  Use a compound sentence with a coordinating conjunction to tell a partner about using a computer.
Apostrophes 1

An apostrophe is used in the spelling of a contraction. The apostrophe takes the place of one or more letters.

Two Words          Contraction

did not            didn’t you are            you’re
I am              I’m

Write a contraction for each word or word pair in the list. Then rewrite each sentence, replacing the words in bold letters with a contraction.

Two Words          Contraction

is not it is do not they are cannot

1. Mary cannot sing. Mary can’t sing.

2. Jake is not singing.

3. They are both not singing.

4. It is time for you to sing.

5. But I do not want to.
2. Write contractions for the following word pairs.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

Apostrophes 2

An apostrophe plus an s is added to a singular noun to show ownership. (Singular means “one.”)

the girl’s bike (The bike belongs to the girl.)
the cat’s whiskers (The whiskers belong to the cat.)

1. In each sentence, put an apostrophe in the word that tells who the gerbil belongs to. The first one has been done for you.

1. Chester’s gerbil likes leaf lettuce.
2. I think LaJoy’s gerbil is the cutest.
3. Where is the teachers gerbil?
4. Molly’s gerbil is under my desk!
5. My neighbors gerbil stays in a cage.

2. In each sentence, draw a line under the word that tells who the hat belongs to. Draw one of the hats in the box.

1. Who has the baby’s hat?
2. Mr. Dandelion’s hat is yellow.
3. Look at Roger’s hat!
4. Did you see Kathy’s red hat?
5. Rocky Stark’s hat is black.
Combine each set of words into a possessive phrase. Then write an interesting sentence using the phrase. Make sure to use apostrophes correctly. The first one has been done for you.

1. Betty ➤ house  Betty's house
   I went to Betty's house to play.

2. my sister ➤ pony

3. our dog ➤ name

4. a clown ➤ face

5. Mr. Brown ➤ car

6. a bluebird ➤ house

7. Shauna ➤ desk

Next Step Exchange your sentences with a classmate. Check the apostrophes in your partner’s work.

Sun Safety Tips

Always use sunscreen! Reapply often if playing in the water. Use at least 30 SPF. The sun's rays are the most intense between 11am and 3pm.

Wear sunglasses, the sun's rays can damage your eyes even if you aren't looking at the sun directly.

If you start to feel dizzy or sick, get in the shade and tell a parent or other trusted adult.
